EEO Public File Report

December 1, 2010 – November 30, 2011

Statement of Supplemental EEO Outreach Activities:

a) Initiative : Participation in a Job Fair

On May 19, 2011, Blueberry Broadcasting LLC participated in the Employ Maine 2011 Career & Resource Fair at the Spectacular Event Center in Bangor. Our participation was to help educate attendees on job opportunities in broadcasting and with Blueberry Broadcasting's two employment units. The fair was attended by a Blueberry Broadcasting Program Manager and the Director of Programming & Operations.

On October 27, 2011, Blueberry Broadcasting LLC participated in the 14th Annual Fall Job Fair at the Bangor Career Center. Our participation was to help educate attendees on job opportunities in broadcasting and with Blueberry Broadcasting's two employment units. The fair was attended by a Blueberry Broadcasting Program Manager and the Director of Programming & Operations.

b) Initiative: Participation in a Program Sponsored by Educational Institutions:

On April 4, 2011, Ric Tyler a Blueberry Broadcasting LLC personality spoke to Professor Sarah Smiley's two Broadcast Journalism classes at the University of Maine, Orono campus regarding news writing techniques. Ric also critiqued student scripts and shared insight into a career in broadcasting.

On April 6, 2011, Blueberry Broadcasting LLC personality Ric Tyler took part in the Community Reading Day at Fruit Street School by reading three books to Mrs. Lisa Gallant's third grade class. He shared insight into the importance of reading in a career of broadcasting.

On May 31, 2011 a Blueberry Broadcasting Program Director spent the morning at United Technologies Center. He gave radio presentations to five different groups of 8th graders. It was part of their 17th annual Career Fair.

On August 2, 2011 two Blueberry Broadcasting LLC personalities hosted a tour of twenty high school students who attended the New England School of Communications Media Camp. All students were interested in a possible future in broadcasting. They discussed the Blueberry properties, and formats. There was a discussion about talk radio and sports broadcasting as well as the music formats. There were a few of the students that had interests in becoming a talk show host. They ended the tour with a Q & A regarding the studios and equipment room.

- c) Initiative: Internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcasting employment.

From January 2011 to May 2011, a student from the University of Maine- Orono campus participated in the Blueberry Broadcasting internship program under the guidance of the local Operations Manager. The intern program gives students an inside look at all aspects of the operation. The student had an interest in our sports stations. The school requirement for interns is 150 hours.

- d) Initiative: Provision of training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunities and preventing discrimination.

On November 1, 2011, Blueberry Broadcasting conducted a training session to management level personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions. This session also included disseminating information regarding all vacancies, recruitment sources, internal record keeping, applications, interviewees and referral sources. This training session was attended by the VP/COO, Director of Sales & the Director of Programming & Operations.

- e) Initiative: Establishment of training programs and mentoring programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.

Blueberry Broadcasting LLC established training and mentoring programs for the staff. Both programs enable an employee to acquire skills that could qualify them for a higher level position within the organization. The program is individualized and the training and mentoring is designed to fit the needs and desires of the employee and is on-going.

- f) Participation in other activities (Menu option # 16)

Blueberry Broadcasting LLC airs fifteen second public service announcements for community organizations to further the goal of disseminating information as to employment opportunities. These announcements air a minimum of once per day on all sixteen Blueberry Broadcasting stations.
